

G Rutvik Sharma

Fresher

Currently a college student studying Computer Science and Business Systems, I understand how technology and business go hand in hand. My goal is to use my skills to make a positive impact in both the tech and business worlds. While I'm just starting out in web development and programming (C,C++ & Python) , I'm dedicated and hardworking , and I also enjoy working in teams.

Social Media Clone Using HTML , CSS , JS
(2023 - Present)

- Designed and constructed a social media website replica utilizing HTML, CSS. Crafted the initial webpage encompassing the homepage layout, featuring a left-aligned sidebar, a prominent banner section, and a comprehensive compilation of videos. The video list showcases video thumbnails, titles, and associated channel details. Implemented a responsive design approach to ensure optimal usability on varying screen sizes, particularly on smaller devices. The project adeptly demonstrates proficiency in web development, design, and responsiveness.
